

Oregon CCCA Fall Tour 2018

Western Washington

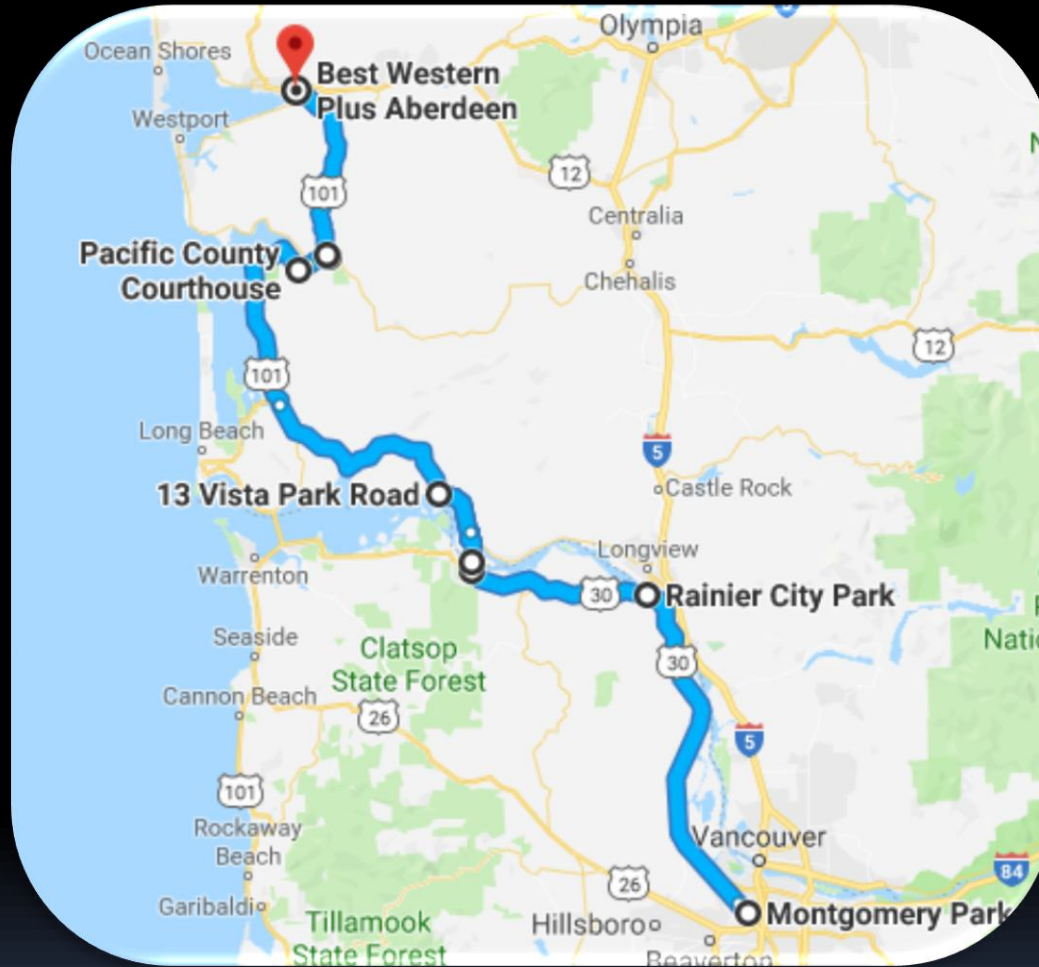

Victoria, BC

Whidbey Island

Saturday Sept 9th thru Sunday Sept 16th

*Portland to Aberdeen - Lake Quinault - Port Angeles - Port Townsend - Coupeville
- Silverdale and back to Portland.*

Saturday, Sept 8th. - Montgomery Park - Aberdeen - (163 miles)

Tour Leader for the day, George Potter

Montgomery Park to Rainier City Park - Wahkiakum County Ferry - Shelia's Country Kitchen - The Raymond Carriage House Museum - and the Best Western Inn in Aberdeen

On Friday, Sept 7th, The Galvins, Szerlips, Aloma Dourox and Potters spent the night at the Phoenix Inn in Portland so we could be on time at Montgomery Park Saturday morning.

*First thing George gets a blister on his tire at Montgomery Park
And he's off to Les Schwab's for tire repairs*

First Stop - Rainier City Park

On the Wahkiakum County Ferry crossing the Columbia River to Puget Island on the way to Raymond for lunch at Shelia's Café and the Carriage House Museum.

Raymond Carriage Museum

They have over 60 fully restored Carriages and Buggy's at the Raymond Carriage Museum

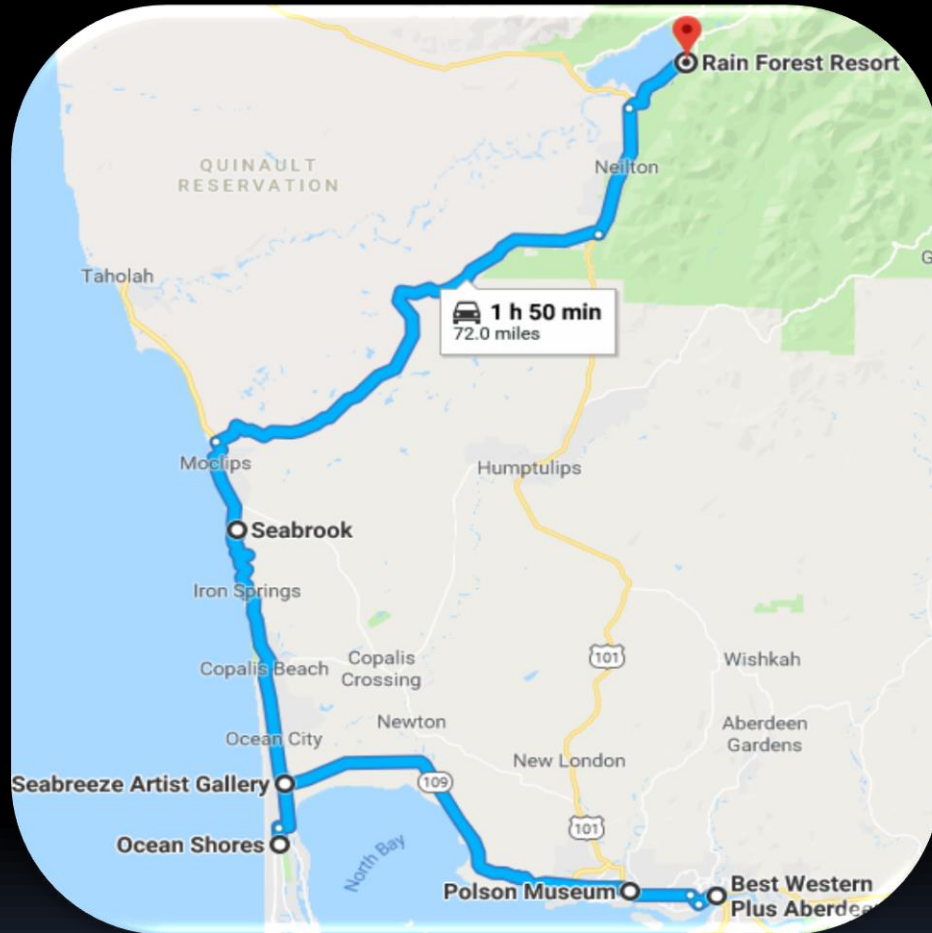

Amazing all Wicker Buggy

Looks like Roy has a new Buddy

Sunday, Sept 9th. - Aberdeen - Rain Forest Resort- (72 miles)

Tour Leader for the day, Bill Jabs

Best Western Inn in Aberdeen to Polson Museum - Seabreeze Trading Post - Ocean Shores for lunch - Seabrook Housing development and the Rain Forest Resort for the night

Bill Jabs holds a drivers meeting in the hotel parking lot.

First stop the Polson Museum in Aberdeen

The Polson museum has a lovely rose garden

Mary Jabs, Aloma Douroux and many of the ladies enjoyed the Rose Garden

The Polson Museum was selling raffle tickets for this Dodge Challenger.

The Polson Museum Curator John Larson tells us the history of the museum and the Lumber Baron, Arnold Polson and his family

Arnold Polson owned a massive logging company and built several types of half track vehicles for moving logs out of the rain forest of the North West woods.

Lunch and shopping in Ocean Shores

There was an antique shop at the Seabreeze Trading Post which did a brisk business with several of the ladies...

On the road to Lake Quinault and the Rain Forest Village

Checking in at the Rain Forest Resort in the "Rain"

We took over the whole Resort including the motel and several cabins

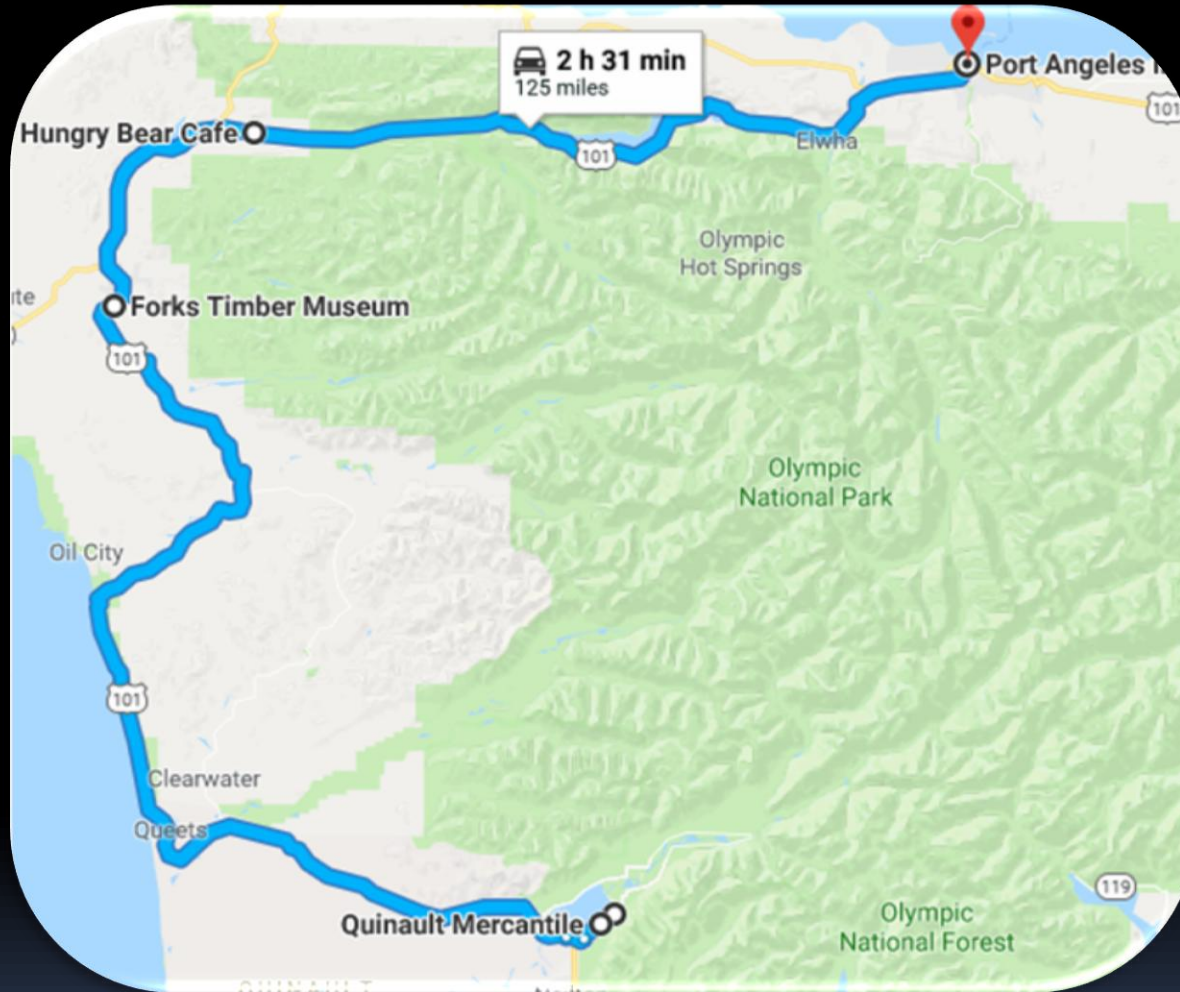

We had a Group dinner at the Salmon House Restaurant at Rain Forest Village

A Nice dinner with a view of the lake at the Salmon House Restaurant

Monday, Sept 10th. - Rain Forest to Port Angeles- (125 miles)

Tour Leader for the day, Bill George

The Rain Forest Resort to Forks Timber Museum - The Hungry Bear Café for lunch and Port Angeles Inn for the night

Staging of the cars as we leave the Rain Forest Resort for the days run

*Our First stop,
Breakfast at the Quinault Lodge and then on to the Forks
Timber Museum in Forks, WA*

Our lunch was at the Hungry Bear Café just West of Forks

Our first Group dinner at the Kokopelli Grill in Port Angeles

Tuesday, Sept 11th. - Free day in Port Angeles and Victoria BC

Leena Lee and the Eddy's went to High Tea at The Empress Hotel

Activities included the highlights of Port Angeles, (For me that was the local Hardware store) while others took the Black Ball Ferry to Victoria for the day...

The Black Ball Ferry to Victoria

The view of Port Angeles from our hotel Room.

Happy Hour in Jerry and BJs room in Port Angeles.

Wednesday, Sept 12th. - Port Angeles to Port Townsend (63 miles)

Tour Leader for the day, Robert Douglas

Port Angeles to Brown Malony Car Collection - Black Bear Café for lunch and the afternoon on your own in Port Townsend

After Breakfast at the Hotel in Port Angeles it was off to the Brown Malony car collection in Sequim, WA

Headed up the hill to see the Brown Malony Car Collection.

Some of the many exotic cars in his collection.

Brown Malony had a separate building full of Mustangs and Corvettes

Some of us taking a break at the Brown Malony car collection.

He also had a 1933 Packard that got the boys attention

After a bit of shopping in Port Townsend it was time for another dinner, this time at Doc's Marina Grill

Enjoying an evening out in Port Townsend

Happy faces at Doc's Marina Grill

Thursday, Sept 13th. -Port Townsend to Coupeville (12 miles)

Tour Leader for the day, Jan Taylor and Bob Newland on Whidbey Island

In Port Townsend we took the Ferry to Whidbey Island where Jan & Bob took us on a private tour of the Colonels House at Fort Casey, then on to Lunch at the Cove on the wharf in Coupeville and back to see the Fort Casey Lighthouse, Bunkers and Cannons.

Thank to Jan Taylor and Bob Newland for the private tour of Fort Casey's Colonels house

Lined up in Fort Casey to tour the Colonels house

Sylvia and Aloma posing with George's Packard

*Brad Ispen's Freshly completed customized 1940 LaSalle coupe...
What a beautiful job he did*

The Lighthouse at Fort Casey

Fort Casey Bunkers and Disappearing Cannons

Dinner at the 100 year old Captain Whidbey Inn

The Coupeville Inn

Heather and Evelyn enjoying the day at the Coupeville Inn

Friday, Sept 14th. A day on Whidbey Island with Jan Taylor and Bob Newland

Front St. in Coupeville was reserved for our cars.
Robert Douglas's car makes front page news in the Whidbey Island news paper

Having fun on Main Street Coupeville

Enjoying Coupeville

An afternoon at Bob Newland's & Jan Taylor's

At the Newland's garage with Bob giving rides in his 27 Packard 8 343 Touring Car

Several of us ventured down to Patron's in Clinton for Mexican lunch where a local CCCA club member Steve Gutzmer saw our cars and invited us to see his collection which included a 1932 Buick, 64 Jaguar , 66 Mustang and a 50 Chev PU.

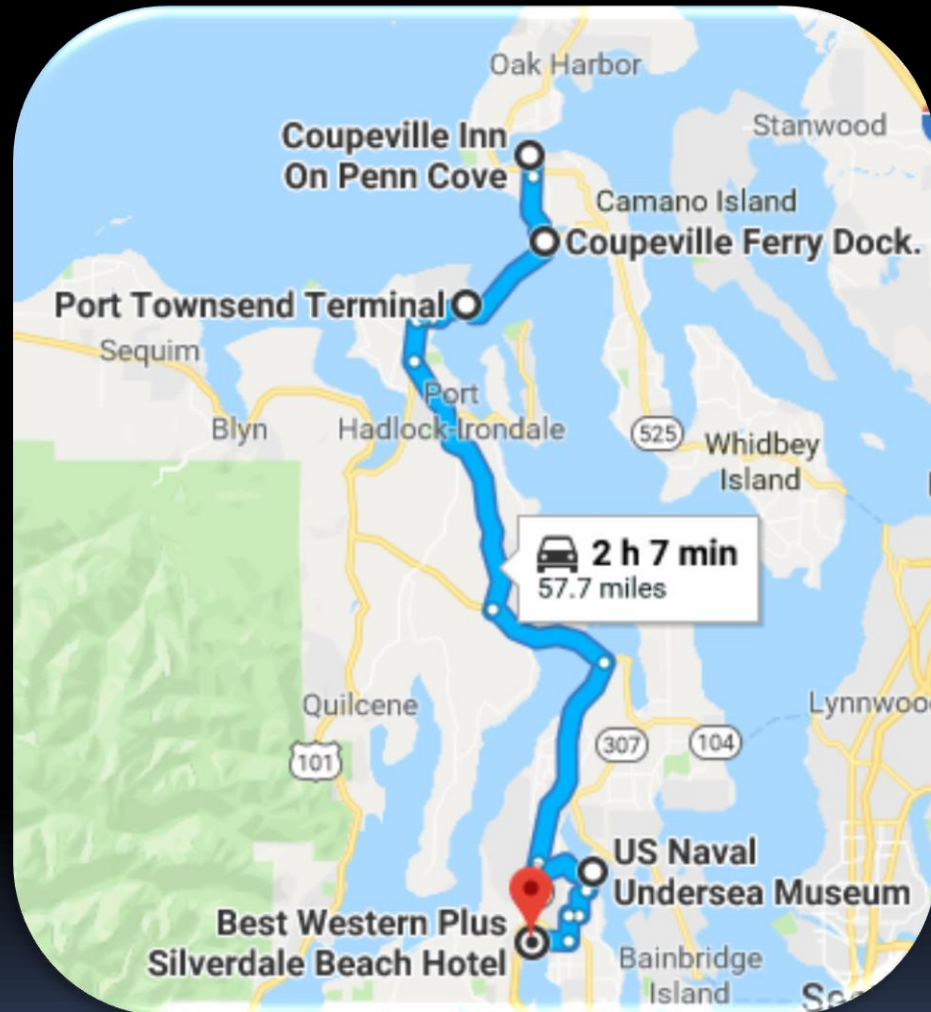

*We were treated to a Champagne
& Bonbon reception at the Compass
Rose B&B*

What a lovely treat indeed!

Saturday, Sept 15th. - Coupeville to Silverdale (58 miles)

Tour Leader for the day, Jerry Szerlip

We took the Ferry back to Port Townsend and spent time checking out the local curio shops, and had Lunch then on to the Undersea Museum and Best Western Plus hotel in Silverdale.

This was the last night of the tour

Howard thanked all for coming and those who helped put it together.

*Congratulation Evelyn!
You made the entire tour.*

Sunday, Sept 16th. -Silverdale to Portland (171 miles)

Tour Leader for the day, Rodger Eddy

No activities were planned for the Sunday drive back to Portland, Several left early and Rodger led a group a bit later in the morning.

Do come join the fun next September.